demand for more exotic destinations and experiential travel, it is time to answer the call of the wild. Hold one's horses no longer and move it, move it to Madagascar in the 10-day Move It Move It to Madagascar tour, where travellers will meet a vast array of native wildlife from colourful chameleons to ringed-tailed lemurs. Get acquainted with the great conqueror-emperor Genghis Khan in the 8-day Essence of Mongolia tour, featuring an inside look at the free-spirited lives of Mongolian nomads and dive straight into the heart of this sprawling land shrouded in enigma and mystique. Then, traipse over to a safari beyond the wildest dreams in the 10-day South Africa Kruger Wildlife With Food Safari and Victoria Falls tour, in which wildlife lovers get to listen to the giants of the wild – from the thundering hooves of buffalo herds to the spine-tingling roar of a lion.

Doing It for the 'Gram

Riding on the wave of social-media fuelled travel trends – from perennial head-turners like Australia to Morocco's most-photographed Chefchaouen – 2019 and 2020 travel is all about doing it for the 'gram. Fill Instagram feeds with vibrant and colourful hues in the 12-day Highlights of Morocco With Blue City tour, in which travellers can keep a cool head exploring this Sahara nation amid relatively cooler weather during the year end. Laid-back Australia continues to tick all the right boxes in the looks department from Melbourne's hippest cafes and speakeasies to Sydney's supermodel aesthetics and Western Australia's wondrous nature. Gear up for an epic vacation behind the wheels in the 8-day Glamping Up Sydney and Surrounds Self-Drive Holiday tour, in which countless spectacular views, such as Wollongong Harbour, Bondi Beach and Darling Harbour amongst others, offer some of the most amazing photo opportunities guaranteed to stir up some serious Insta-envy. Those who wish to curate swoon-worthy photos without the hassle of figuring out the best vantage points will be rubbing their hands in glee in the My Travel Photographer Series: 8D Spring into Sydney and Surrounds tour, which includes an exclusive jacaranda blossoms viewing experience, the breathtaking Sculpture by the Sea exhibition and a horseback-riding experience at Glenworth Valley; with a professional photographer accompanying the group throughout to capture memorable and picture-perfect moments every step of the way – so one can step out from behind the lenses and truly enjoy the vacation. Then, veer off the beaten paths to China's most intriguing natural wonderland and geopark at Zhangye Danxia National Park in the 13-day Mysterious Silk Road With Northern Xinjiang tour, in which a tapestry of iridescent rolling hills swathed in swirls of orange, yellow and white – truly an exquisite testament to all of China's bucolic charms – await.

Wintry Escapades

Dreaming of a perfect wintry getaway this year end away from the tropical heat? From wandering through pretty twinkling stalls filled with handcrafted artisanal goods and traditional delicacies and sipping on mulled wine out
