Singapore – 19 August 2019

Chan Brothers Travel Unveils Trends at Travel Revolution 2019 – The Event

July and August 2019 have seen Singaporeans fervently snapping up travel deals for explorations far and wide, and planning prudently for vacations till December 2020. The buying frenzy looks set to continue at Travel Revolution 2019 – The Event from 30 August to 1 September, 11am to 9pm at Marina Bay Sands B2 Expo Hall F. Destinations trending evident from bookings thus far include perennial favourites such as Europe, Japan, Korea, Taiwan and China, exotic locales like Antarctica and Latin America, and red-hot resurgent destinations such as Australia, New Zealand and Turkey. Riding on the wave of demand, Chan Brothers Travel unveils more burgeoning trends ahead.

Asia on a Platter

Boasting an astounding cornucopia of history, culture, cuisine and street life, the beguiling Asia continent never fails to enthral travellers time and time again. Special interest travellers keen to explore this vast and diverse continent need to look no further than Chan Brothers Travel's suite of Asia thematic tours offering a slew of curated experiences from insider programmes perfect for repeat travellers, epicurean immersions for those who live to eat, toddler-centric itineraries and seasonal edition. Seasoned Japanophiles can travel back in time to discover Nippon's lesser-explored sights and find inner zen beneath the surface of exceedingly modern Japan in the 14 days Insider Japan and Hokkaido. Food and pop culture lovers can dive deep into the soul of Korea on a gastronomic adventure in the 7 days Yummy Yummy Korea – eat your heart out and sample Korean delicacies from the likes of the famous Lee Sung Dang bread and unique salt ice cream delicacy. Travelling with little tots in tow? With child-friendly arrangements such as conducive daytime flights and extended meal times, hassle-free, treasured memories are yours to make in the Little Tots Can Fly series.
